History of South Africa under the administration of the Dutch East India Company, 1652 to 1795

by George McCall Theal

RICHMOND, VA—The Dutch East India Company established a trading post around the cape of southern Africa, and on to India and other points eastward, to develop—almost two-thirds of Cape Town residents in 1795 were slaves. History of South Africa under the administration of the Dutch East India Company, 1652-1795 by George McCall Theal - Paperback at best.