Each year brings CPT coding changes for most medical specialties, and anesthesia is no exception. ICD-10 also brought in many changes for

Based on ASA billing guidelines, when anesthesia services are provided for multiple surgical procedures, only the anesthesia procedure code for the most complex service should be reported.